

Promoting Positive Aging

PROGRAM

Región de los Lagos – Puerto Montt

Fecha: Miércoles 21 de Agosto de 2019

Dirección: Universidad San Sebastián - Lago Panguipulli 1390, Puerto Montt, Chile. Sala: Aula Magna.

9:00	Welcoming Words. Harry Jürgensen Caesar Governor of the Region (Intendente)
9:10	Opening Words First Lady of Chile, Cecilia Morel Montes (Video)
9:20	Policies on Positive Aging Speaker. Undersecretary of Health, Dr. Mrs Paula Daza
9:45	Local reality of old age and aging: How can we contribute from the academy? Speaker: Representative of the Austral University of San Sebastian.
10:15	Coffee Break
10:45	Myths and realities of aging. By means of cellular APP, 3 myths about aging are projected on the screen and the people of the audience answer through their mobile phones. Then a video made by “ Fundación Oportunidad ” Mayor is projected to older people where they are asked questions of public health that will be answered by experts. Question and answers
11:00	How to strengthen the health systems of the APEC economies to face the changes that the aging of the population entails?. Speaker. Francesca Colombo, Head of the Health Division, Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD)
11:45	Promotion and prevention strategies. Identifying the investments necessary to maintain the functional health of the elderly. What do we need to enhance the cost-effectiveness of public policies aimed at caring for the elderly? Speaker: Sr. Pedro Olivares, Superintendencia de Salud
12:15	Long-term care strategies in elderly people What do we need to implement better health care and improve user perception? Speaker: Nanako Tamiya Professor and Chair Department of Health Services Research, University of Tsukuba, Director of Research and Development Center for Health Services
12:45	Closing remarks. Office for International Relations and Cooperation Ministry of Health Chile
13:00	Press conference